

The Concorso d'Eleganza Villa d'Este Design Award to Ferrari P4/5 by Pininfarina

Villa Erba, Cernobbio, april 22nd 2007 - At the the Concorso d'Eleganza Villa d'Este Ferrari P4/5 has been assigned the prestigious Concorso d'Eleganza Design Award.

The Award is the result of the public referendum among the 12 concept cars and prototypes on display at this event bringing automotive heritage spectacularly alive once again.

The President of the Concorso, Karl Baumer and Jean-Marc Droulers, President Villa d'Este S.p.A, delivered the award to the P4/5 owner, the American collector James Glickenhau, after the cars' parade in the ideal showcase of Spazio Villa Erba. The Chairman and CEO Andrea Pininfarina expressed great satisfaction: "I have been following the P4/5 project since the very beginning and I am happy that from this "experience" with Jim Glickenhau was born a car gathering success and awards among both the experts and the public. The tradition of special custom-built cars belongs to our Company since its foundation and represents for us an important challenge in which we will continue to invest".
